Social Activities at East and North Peacham—Personal Mention

The East Peacham V. I. S. gave a supper at John Lamb's Friday evening, Oct. 31. About 75 were present. The house was prettily decorated with black cats and other things suggesting Hallowe'en. Four little girls and boys were dressed as ghosts and served as waiters. Mrs. Joseph Hunter in costume acted as fortune teller. A harvest supper was served in the middle of the table as a centerpiece was a pumpkin coach driven by an old witch carrying a broom. The table was also decorated with colored candles in potatoes. The play entitled "The Peak Sisters," was given and about seven dollars cleared.

The North Peacham Social club held an oyster supper and Hallowe'en entertainment at the Ewell's Hollow schoolhouse Saturday evening, Nov. 1. A large crowd attended and about $17.50 was taken in. The house was decorated with Hallowe'en paper colored candles, Jack-o'-lanterns and scarlet and gold bunting. The following program was given: Instrumental music, Mrs. Roy Courson; welcome to all, Minnie Welch and Wallace Taylor; song in costume, Jack Frost, by the school children; duet, Mrs. Courson and Mrs. L. M. Adams; song and drill in costume, Keep the Horse-shoe over the door; essay on Hallowe'en, Mrs. C. W. Thresher; recitation, Sixty Years Ago, Helen A. Sanborn; declamation, Goblins, Clyde Brown; song, The Cornstalk, Mrs. L. D. Harvey and Paul Taylor; reading, The Ghost of John Christopher, Benjamin Himes; original poem entitled "The Hallowe'en Pumpkin," Norris Smith. After the program supper was served by eight waiters wearing Hallowe'en caps, aprons and bows. The next meeting of the club will be Nov. 15 at S. A. Welch's.

Miss Geneva Chandler who has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Philip Hebb at Johnson has returned home.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will give an oyster supper at the vestry Thursday evening, Nov. 6, followed by two farces, "A Difference in Clocks," by Dr. A. J. Mackay and Miss Elsie Choate and "Packing the Home Missionary Barrel" with the following cast of characters: Mrs. Brown, the hostess, Mrs. Miriam Varnum; Mrs. Dimples, short and stout, Mrs. M. W. Chaffee; Miss Slim, a simpering spinster, Mrs. Olie McFarlane; Mrs. Green, a boss, Mrs. Bertha Munger; Mrs. Jones, a confirmed invalid, Mrs. Ada Blanchard; Mrs. Lamb, a widow, Katharine Hooker; Mrs. Marks and Mrs. White, helpers, Mrs. Mary Mackay and Bernice Blanchard; Mrs. Hicks, a strong-minded woman, Miss Bertha Richardson; Sophie, a Polish girl, Mrs. Susie Abbott.

License to Sell

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid: To all persons interested in the estate of William E. Waldo, an insane person, of Danville, in said District, greeting: Whereas, application in writing hath been made to this Court by the Guardian of William E. Waldo, aforesaid, for license to sell the real estate of said ward, viz: 115 acres of land, more or less, with a dwelling house and outbuildings thereon, situated in Danville, in the County of Caledonia, and State of Vermont, representing that the sale thereof for the purpose of paying the proceeds or such sale at interest, or investing the same in stocks or other real estate, or using the same for the benefit of said ward as the law directs would be beneficial for said ward.

Whereupon, the said Court appointed and assigned the 15th day of November, A. D. 1913, at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury, in said District, to hear and decide upon said application, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons interested therein by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury, in said District, which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested therein; all of which publications shall be previous to the time appointed for the hearing.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court at the time and place aforesaid, then and there in said Court, to object to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand at St. Johnsbury, in said District, this 25th day of October, A. D. 1913.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Notice of Allowance of Account. ESTATE OF AGNES STUART.

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid: To all persons interested in the estate of Agnes Stuart, late of Barre, in said District, deceased, greeting: Whereas, said Court has assigned the 1st day of November next for examining and allowing the account of the Administrator of the estate of said deceased and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Caledonian a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in said District.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury in said District, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand this 14th day of October, A. D. 1913.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.
